

Feedback from EYFS children about History (June 2023)

General questions about History

Children from Early Years have feedback on History. Some of the questions asked may have been slightly re-worded so they were accessible to children of all ages

Action to take as a result of Pupil Feedback on History from June 2022

- Update all knowledge organisers to ensure that history skills (to be taught in topics) are clear.
- To ensure children are shown different accounts of the same historic event (more sources needed).
- Invite adults who work in the history field to make children aware of career opportunities.

Action taken by subject leader since June 2022

- Brought in a whole school definition of history and it is being used in classes.
- Held a number events and workshops to build children's enthusiasm about the subject.
- Invested in outdoor timelines (British history and Kings and Queens).

What do you in History?

- Look old pictures.
- History is old things.
- We look at old toys.
- We talk about our families being older.

What do you like about History?

- I like looking at old things because they are fun.
- I like knowing what people used to live like.

Why is learning about history important?

- So you can learn everything in the world.
- To know where things came from.

Can you describe what these words mean? (What are the wonders of Tyldesley?)

Old

New

Long time ago

Buildings

Past

Change- Needed some prompting

Do you know any historically famous people?

- No response.

What would you like to have in History?

- Learning about how things were made so we can make new things.
- Learn about dinosaurs.
- More old things to look at.

Action to take as a result of Pupil Feedback on History

- Ensure children are aware of historical figures through history using books, songs and videos.
- Invest in more sources (ancient and in living memory) to improve historic understanding.

Next Pupil Feedback review: Summer Term 2024

'Never settle for less than your best'

Jesus said, 'I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.' John 8:12